A Note about Assigned Roommates Positive Living is an inclusive welcoming event. We will not, and do not honor request to segregate roommates on the basis of race, sexual orientation, gender identity or religious belief. This principle extends to all aspects of our conference, and all attendees are expected to conduct themselves in the same manner. Everyone will have a roommate unless you have selected a private room. If you know someone you would like to room with, be sure to provide their name below in the provided section. If we receive a matching application we will do our best to room you together. If you do not make a request, or we do not receive a matching application or request, OASIS Florida will assign your roommate.
